Whitehall, April 14.

The following Addreſſes having been delivered or tranſmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him preſented to the King: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of His Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Right Reverend John Lord Biſhop of Rocheſter, Dean of Weſtminſter, Henry Duke of Newcaſtle, Knight of the Moſt Noble Order of the Garter, High Steward, the Deputy Steward, Two Chief Burgeſſes, the Burgeſſes, Aſſiſtants and other Inhabitants of the City and Liberty of Weſtminſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

AT a Time of that univerſal Joy and Gratitude, which is without a Parallel in the Hiſtory of this Country, permit us, your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, John Lord Biſhop of Rocheſter, Dean of Weſtminſter, Henry Duke of Newcaſtle, High Steward, the Deputy Steward, Two Chief Burgeſſes, Burgeſſes, Aſſiſtants and other Inhabitants of the City and Liberty of Weſtminſter, moſt humbly to offer our heartful Congratulations on an Event which has reſtored a juſtly beloved Sovereign to the Wiſhes and Prayers of a loyal People.

We acknowledge, with the warmeſt Senſations of Thankfulneſs, the Goodneſs of Almighty God, ſo ſignally manifeſted on this memorable Occaſion towards your Majeſty, and towards your Majeſty's Subjects at large. Long may your Majeſty continue to reign over an affectionate and free People, zealouſly attached to your Majeſty's Perſon, from a Knowledge of the Virtues by which your Majeſty's Character is diſtinguiſhed, and to your Majeſty's Government, from a Senſe of the Bleſſings it has diffuſed throughout every Part of the Britiſh Empire.

Given under our Common Seal, this 17th Day of March, 1789.

By Order of the Court,

John Jackſon, Town Clerk.

(Signed by 4876 Perſons.)

[Delivered by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop of Rocheſter, and the Right Honourable Lord Hood.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Hereford.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Hereford, humbly beg Leave to profeſs to your Majeſty our Gratitude to Almighty God for His providential Reſtoration of your Majeſty to your Royal Family, and to this Church and Nation.

We were deeply afflicted under the Danger impending over a Life ſo valuable to all your Subjects, and by your Illuſtrious Character, precious in the Eſtimation of Foreign Princes and States. We united fervently with the general and anxious Prayers for your Recovery. The national Prayer has been heard; and we are now enjoying the exquiſite Pleaſure of being thankful.

Permit us, moſt Gracious Sir, to lay at your Feet our warmeſt Congratulations on this moſt important Event, and thereby to tranſmit to Poſterity our Senſe of your Majeſty's Virtues, in Concurrence with the moſt general Joy that ever was diffuſed through an extenſive Empire.

We have no other temporal Bleſſing now to wiſh, than that which in our Diſtreſs we felt ſo eſſential to publick Happineſs, your Majeſty's much longer Reign in Health and Proſperity, in the Enjoyment of the Virtues of our moſt Gracious Queen, and of the dutiful Affection of your Royal Deſcendants, as well as the invariable Loyalty of your grateful Subjects.

We humbly hope theſe our Profeſſions, Wiſhes and Prayers will be acceptable to your Majeſty, and we truſt that the Sincerity of them will be manifeſt from the Example ſet by us to thoſe committed to our Care, in devoting our Lives to the Service of God, our King, and our Country.

[Delivered by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Exeter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Exeter, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence, and to congratulate with your Majeſty on your happy Recovery from your late Indiſpoſition. Deeply ſenſible of the Bleſſings which we enjoy under your Majeſty's Government, our tendereſt Paſſions are ſet into Motion by every Event which can affect your Majeſty's Health and Life; and with theſe Feelings, and with the trueſt Sentiments of Piety, Love and Gratitude, we not only acknowledge the Goodneſs of Providence in hearing the Petitions of your affectionate and faithful People in Behalf of your Majeſty; but alſo are bold to add our warmeſt Wiſhes and moſt fervent Prayers, that the ſame good Providence may keep your Majeſty, and lead you by the uniform Practice of thoſe Virtues which adorn your Majeſty's Character, to an Increaſe of Happineſs and Glory, public and private, temporal and eternal.

[Delivered by the Right Rev. the Lord Biſhop of Exeter.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, the Dean and Canons of Chriſt Church, the Archdeacon, the Chancellor, and the reſt of the Clergy of the Dioceſe of Oxford.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, the Dean and Canons of Chriſt Church, the Archdeacon, the Chancellor, and the reſt of the Clergy of the Dioceſe of Oxford, humbly beg Permiſſion to lay before you our ſincereſt Expreſſions of Gratitude and Thankfulneſs for the Re-eſtabliſhment of your Majeſty's Health, and for your Reſtoration to the Exerciſe of the Royal Authority.

Our Sentiments of Joy on theſe Occaſions have, if poſſible, almoſt extinguiſhed the Remembrance of thoſe alarming Fears and Apprehenſions which lately depreſſed and affected with the utmoſt Tenderneſs the Hearts of an affectionate and afflicted People. This Diſtreſs, which was uncommon, and indeed univerſal, was much increaſed by the Dread of being deprived of the Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Councils, at a Time when this Nation was riſing to unuſual Proſperity, and advancing in Eſtimation and Conſequence both at Home and Abroad.

That Grief and Concern, ſo deeply felt in theſe Kingdoms, ſoon communicated itſelf to Foreign Countries, where our Sovereign was held in ſuch Veneration that their earneſt Prayers were, jointly with our own, offered up to Almighty God for the Preſervation and Recovery of a King, deſervedly the Object of the Eſteem and Love of all Mankind.

Being at Length relieved from our moſt diſtreſsful Anxiety, nothing now remains but that we praiſe and adore that Gracious Providence which hath, with it's accuſtomed Goodneſs, watched over us; and that we implore the ſame Providence to grant to us a long Continuance of thoſe many Bleſſings which depend on a Life dear and valuable to us, and on the Adminiſtration of that good Government which has been and we truſt will ſtill be the beſt Security of the Welfare and Happineſs of theſe Kingdoms.

[Delivered by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Precentor and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of St. David.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

IMPRESSED with a deep Senſe of Gratitude to Almighty God, for having reſtored your Majeſty to a faithful and loyal People, we, the Precentor and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of St. David, beg Leave humbly to bear, at the Foot of your Throne, a Teſtimony of our Happineſs on the Occaſion.

Though ſituated in a moſt remote Corner of this Iſland, the peculiar Relation in which we ſtand to our Sovereign, to whom, by the Conſtitution of our very antient and formerly Metropolitan Church, a Prebendal Stall is appropriated, and which He does us the Honour to hold among us, ſeems to give us a Claim to a particular Intereſt in every Circumſtance which can affect His Sacred Perſon.

But the Bleſſings which theſe Kingdoms have experienced under your Majeſty's Government are of far more general Concern; yet cannot theſe in any Words be acknowledged by us ſo fully or ſo unequivocally as they have been by the general Dejection of your Subjects during the late Suſpenſion, and the unbounded Tokens of decent, becauſe heartfelt, Joy on your Re-aſſumption of it. All that is left to us to add, is our Hope that your Majeſty may continue long to reign over a free and happy Nation; while, as an Eccleſiaſtical Body, we unite moſt cordially with every ſincere Chriſtian, in fervent Supplications to the Supreme Being, for His eſpecial Protection of a Monarch, who has always ſhewn Himſelf ſo zealous and ſo exemplary in the Cauſe of Religion and Virtue.

Francis Wollaſton, Precentor.

[Delivered by the Reverend Francis Wollaſton, Precentor.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Rocheſter.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Dean and Chapter of your Cathedral Church of Rocheſter, humbly beg Leave to expreſs to your Majeſty the very ſincere and Heartfelt Joy with which we are affected on your Majeſty's Recovery from your late Indiſpoſition.

Partaking, as we did, in the general Anxiety and Diſtreſs which pervaded the whole Nation during your Majeſty's Illneſs, and the conſequent Suſpenſion of the executive Government, we do now moſt cordially join in the univerſal Tranſport which follows the happy Reſtoration of both.

May the gracious Providence of God add to your Majeſty many Years of Health, Happineſs and Proſperity. May your grateful People long enjoy the Benefits of your Majeſty's paternal Care and private Example. May the particular Bleſſing now vouchſafed unto them have a continued Impreſſion on their Minds, and ever incline them to a dutiful Reſpect to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, to an uniform Obedience to the Laws, and a conſcientious Diſcharge of every religious and ſocial Duty.

Given under our Chapter Seal, the 6th Day of April, in the Twenty-ninth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

[Delivered by the Rev. Dr. Law and Dr. Courtenay, Prebendaries of Rocheſter.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, the Biſhop and Clergy of the Iſle and Dioceſe of Mann, beg Leave to offer to your Majeſty our moſt warm and reſpectful Congratulations on your Recovery from the Bed of Sickneſs: An Event, as it has diffuſed an univerſal Joy through every Rank of your Subjects, ſo it has engaged our particular Gratitude to the Almighty, for having reſtored you to the ardent Prayers of your People.

Remote as we are in Situation from your Majeſty, we happily feel ourſelves within the Sphere of your Royal Influence, Favour and Protection. Circumſtances that render your Health and Welfare Objects of the greateſt Concern to us: And it is our moſt fervent Prayer, that to the Bleſſing of reſtored Health, by which God hath been pleaſed to enable your Majeſty to reſume the Reins of Government, He may add an increaſing Vigour of Body and Mind to ſupport the Cares thereof.

We beg Leave further to repreſent, that the Protection your Majeſty has, during your Reign, as Head of the National Church, afforded to our Religious Eſtabliſhment, and the pious Zeal you have ever uniformly manifeſted in the Diſcharge of the Duties, and in the Diſplay of the Virtues of Chriſtianity, whilſt they merit our warmeſt Admiration, cannot fail of producing the moſt bleſſed and beneficial Effects through your extenſive Empire.

That your Majeſty may long, very long, continue to conſtitute the Happineſs of your moſt amiable Conſort, of your Illuſtrious Family, and of your loyal and affectionate People, ſhall ever be the devout Prayer of your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and truly affectionate Subjects.

[Delivered by Major General Smith, Governor.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of Hampſhire, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our moſt ſincere and warm Congratulations on the happy Re-eſtabliſhment of your Majeſty's Health; an Event which muſt fill with Joy the afflicted Minds of your moſt amiable Conſort and of all your Royal Family, and reſtores a beloved Sovereign to the Wiſhes of a loyal and grateful People. The Duty and Affection which ſo powerfully urge us to theſe Congratulations induce us likewiſe to pray for the uninterrupted Continuance of that Health, the Recovery of which we conſider as a national Bleſſing.

[Delivered by Robert Thiſtlethwaite and Jervoiſe Clarke Jervoiſe, Eſqrs. Repreſentatives in Parliament for that County.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

THE happy Reſtoration of your Majeſty's Health we look upon as an Event of ſo much Conſequence to theſe Kingdoms, that we, the Gentlemen, Clergy and Citizens of the City of Coventry, beg Leave, with the general Voice of the People, to preſent our moſt humble and unfeigned Congratulations on this joyful Occaſion.

It is with the utmoſt Joy and Satisfaction we take this Opportuity of profeſſing to your Majeſty our deep Senſe of the great Bleſſings we enjoy under your auſpicious Government.

May that God, by whom Kings reign, long preſerve your Majeſty's valuable Life a Bleſſing to theſe Nations; and may thoſe Virtues, which add a Luſtre to the Crown in your Majeſty's Perſon, be handed down to your Royal Progeny through all ſucceeding Ages.

[Delivered by Sir Sampſon Gideon, Bart. and John Wilmot, Eſq; Repreſentatives in Parliament for that City.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Proteſtant Epiſcopal Church, known by the Name of Unitas Fratrum, or the United Brethren.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal Subjects, the Members of the Proteſtant Epiſcopal Church of the United Brethren, though a ſmall People comparatively, beg Leave humbly to addreſs our moſt ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's moſt happy Recovery, with Emotions of Joy and Exultation as much beyond the Power of our Utterance, as our Affliction has been during your Majeſty's late Indiſpoſition.

Not only we that experience the benficial Influence of your Majeſty's mild and gracious Government more immediately, but all our Brethren, in every Part of the World, join in the general Praiſe and Thankſgiving to the Almighty for the Reſtoration of ſuch a beloved Sovereign to the Prayers of His People, imploring His Mercy and Goodneſs, that He would bleſs your Majeſty, and your Royal Conſort our moſt gracious Queen, with the choiceſt of His Bleſſings, and grant your Majeſty long to fill the Throne of theſe Realms, with uninterrupted Proſperity and Glory, till tranſplanted into the happy Manſions of everlaſting Bliſs.

Signed in the Name of the United Brethren, and by their Order,

April 8, 1789. James Hutton, Secretary.

S I R E,

LORSQUE la Guériſon de votre Majeſté fait retentir l'Empire Britannique de Chants d'Allégreſſe, les Suiſſes Proteſtans aiant formé à Londres une Egliſe, croiroient, en gardant le Silence, ſe calomnier auprès de vous, et montrer beaucoup moins de Modeſtie que d'Ingratitude. Ils ſentent en Effet avec tant d'Énergie le Bonheur de vivre ſous l'Aile paternelle de votre Majeſté, que cela ſeul leur perſuaderoit qu'ils ne ſont pas indignes d'apporter à ſes Pieds le Tribut de leurs Voeux et de leurs vives Felicitations: C'eſt en même Tems la Joye de leurs Coeurs, et le Charme de leurs Penſées, d'obſerver qu'en offrant au Ciel les plus ardens Souhaits pour la longue Durée de votre heureux Régne, ils ne ſont qu'au Niveau et à l'Uniſſon de tous vos Sujets, qui ſur ce grand Point ſont tous Conformiſtes. Ah! puiſſe votre Majeſté gouverner encore bien des Luſtres un Peuple auſſi fidéle que libre, et qui ſent ſi bien ſon Bonheur! Puiſſe-t-elle avec ſa Couronne tranſmettre à ſes Deſcendans toutes ſes Vertus, et les convaincre que le plus doux Empire eſt celui dont elle jouït au plus haut Degré, l'Empire des Coeurs!

Au ROI.

SIRE,

LES Egliſes Françoiſes Proteſtantes Refugiées viennent mettre aux Piés de votre Majeſté le Tribut reſpectueux de leurs Homages, dans l'Occaſion intereſſante qui fait aujourd'hui l'Allegreſſe de vos Peuples, et immortaliſe leur Amour pour votre Auguſte Perſonne. Nous en partageons avec eux, à Titre de Sujets fideles, toute la Gloire ; mais nous aſpirons de plus, Sire, à l'honorable Diſtinction d'être mis au Nombre de ceux qui beniſſent, avec le plus de Ferveur, l'Arbitre Suprême des Rois et des Empires, d'avoir daigné, dans Ses Compaſſions infinies, exaucer nos Voeux, et rendre la Santé au Monarque bien aimé qui nous gouverne. La Protection dont les Rois, Predeceſſeurs de votre Majeſté, ont honoré nos Ancêtres, nous fait de notre Reconnoiſſance une Loi bien chere à nos Coeurs, et ce ſeroit un Crime, Sire, à nous qui avons, tant de fois, nous memes eprouvé la votre, de n'en pas redoubler dans cet heureux Moment.

Daignez donc lire dans nos Coeurs, Sire, les Tranſports de la Joye qui nous anime ; ils en ſont ſeuls de fideles Interprêtes, et nos Expreſſions ne feroient qu'en affoiblir la Force : Puiſſe la Providence continuer à ſe ſignaler envers votre Peuple, par la Conſervation des Jours precieux de votre Majeſté, et enrichir de toutes Sortes de Graces le Cours d'une Vie, à laquelle ſont attachés et la Proſperité de cette Nation, et le Bonheur meme de l'Europe ! Que les Sentiments de Loyauté et d'Affection de vos fideles Sujets, Sire, ſoyent la juſte Retribution de vos glorieux Travaux ; et que le Nom de votre Majeſté paſſe à la Poſterité la plus reculée, comblé des Benedictions de la Generation preſente.

Au Nom des Egliſes Françoiſes Proteſtantes Refugiées,

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Juſtices of Peace, Commiſſioners of Supply and Heritors of the County of Ayr, beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence, and there, with ſincere Joy and Gratitude, to acknowledge the Divine Goodneſs in reſtoring your Majeſty to perfect Health, and to the full Exerciſe of your regal Power.

We had long felt the Bleſſings of your auſpicious Reign ; and nothing ſeemed wanting to eſtabliſh the Confidence of your Subjects, in the Wiſdom and Vigour of your Government, when Providence gave ſuch an Alarm to your People, and to your Royal Family, from a ſodden and unexpected Change in your Majeſty's Health, as had well nigh diſappointed their Hopes of the Continuance of theſe Bleſſings, under the Adminiſtration of their beloved Sovereign.

By the ſpeedy and compleat Recovery of your Majeſty's Health, brought about by the Wiſdom and Goodneſs of Providence, for the important Purpoſes of encreaſing and uniting the Affection and Confidence of your People, we now find you reſtored to our former Hopes, and to the Capacity of proſecuting that Syſtem of Government, which in a few Years has raiſed this Nation, depreſſed by the Loſſes and Expence of the late War, to a Situation at Home and Abroad, which the moſt ſanguine Friends of Great Britain could not have expected in ſo ſhort a Time.

That your Majeſty, by a long and proſperous Reign, may continue to hold us and all your Subjects, bound to you in Gratitude and Affection, and united with you in all your gracious Purpoſes, for the Happineſs of our Country ; and that the Bleſſings of ſuch a Union may deſcend, with the Crown, to the ſucceeding Princes of your Royal Houſe, is our earneſt Prayer.

Subſcribed by our Præſes, in our Name and by our Appointment, at Ayr, the 31ſt of March, 1789.

ſo intereſting, and ſo full of the bittereſt Diſtreſs and Unhappineſs.

It has pleaſed Almighty God in His great Mercy to give to your Majeſty that Reſpite from your extreme Solicitude, which, next to the Goodneſs of God, was obtained by your daily and earneſt Supplications, united with the Prayers of your faithful Subjects. Nothing but the Hopes of this moſt fortunate Recovery could have ſupported your Majeſty under the Preſſure of ſo great an Affliction But even thoſe Hopes would not have much availed, had they not been aided by that Magnanimity which the Firmneſs of a well regulated Underſtanding, and the habitual Impreſſions of Religious Confidence, naturally inſpired. Thence was derived a Degree of Fortitude, ſo requiſite and ſo much admired by all exhibited hourly in the ſeveral varying and trying Scenes which the ſevereſt of all Calamities in conſtant Succeſſion produces.

May your Majeſty live long in the uninterrupted Enjoyment of your preſent Happineſs, the juſt Reward in this Life of thoſe great and ſplendid Virtues which will hereafter enſure a ſtill greater Recompence, an everlaſting Felicity in the World to come.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Exeter.

MADAM,

WE, the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Exeter, ſenſible of the great Share which your Majeſty takes in the general Joy on Account of the King's Recovery from His late Indiſpoſition, humbly beg Leave to expreſs our own Joy, and to congratulate with your Majeſty on that moſt happy Event.

Your Majeſty's eminent Virtues and Graces have always been the conſtant Object of the Love and Admiration of His Majeſty's affectionate and loyal Subjects; but they never ſhone with greater Luſtre nor appeared more amiable than in the late Hours of Affliction and Diſtreſs; and it is with the greateſt Truth we aſſure your Majeſty, that we offer up our moſt earneſt and devout Prayers to Almighty God, that He may long, very long, preſerve your Majeſty to be an Example and Bleſſing to this Country, and, in Reward of your Virtues, make you happy both here and hereafter.

[Tranſmitted by the Right Rev. the Lord Biſhop.]

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, the Mayor and Commona ty of the Borough of New Woodſtock, beg Leave to join in the general Congratulation to your Majeſty on the perfect Re-eſtabliſhment of His Majeſty's Health.

Whilſt the late Anxiety and Diſtreſs of all Ranks of People, during the Indiſpoſition of their beloved Sovereign, muſt have afforded ſome Conſolation to your Majeſty, even under the Weight of your Affliction, permit us to aſſure you, that His Subjects alſo derived the moſt ſolid Comfort from their firm Reliance upon the tender Cares and inviolable Attachment of His Royal Conſort. For we, Madam, whoſe Condition has placed us at an humble Diſtance from the Throne, can truly aſſert, from perſonal Knowledge, how powerfully the private and domeſtic Virtues of the Palace contribute to ſtrengthen the Confidence and rivet the Affections even of the meaneſt Subjects.

We ſhould therefore be wanting in Gratitude towards your Majeſty, as much as in Attention to our own and the public Intereſt, if we did not wiſh to your Majeſty a laſting Participation of that Bleſſing ſo lately beſtowed upon this Nation by the Divine Providence.

It is indeed our earneſt Prayer that His Majeſty's Royal Conſort may, together with Himſelf, long continue to exhibit a bright Example of this Truth, that the Way to enſure the Happineſs of the Crown is to reign in the Hearts of the People.

Given under our Common Seal, this 28th Day of March, in the Year of our Lord, 1789.

We are not able ſufficiently to expreſs our Gratitude to the great King of Kings, nor to thank Him as we ought, for His Goodneſs to this Nation, in raiſing our moſt gracious Sovereign from the Bed of Sickneſs, and continuing His auſpicious Reign over His grateful People: An Event, however happy and important to this Country, is ſtill much more ſo to your Majeſty, who have the very beſt of Kings for your Royal Conſort.
